

Dr. Anna Makridou is head of Medical Physics Department, Cancer Hospital of Thessaloniki “Theagenio”, supervising 4 MPE’s and RPE’s, 3 senior MPs and 3 MP interns.

1988- today, MP, specialized in RO Physics.

2001-2020, Consultant MP in RO, Interbalkan Medical Center Thessaloniki.

2023-today, Consultant MPE in RO, St Luke’s Hospital Thessaloniki.

BSc in Physics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, 1984.

MSc (DEA) in Radiation Medical Physics, University Paul Sabatier, 1985.

PhD, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, 1992.

MP Accreditation in 1987, MPE in 2021, RPE in 2021

During the last 35 years she has been involved in the education of MP’s as a teacher at:

- MSc course in Medical Physics of the University of Patras ,
- MSc course BIRP of the University of Thessaly

She has supervised the clinical training of over 80 trainees MPs in C.H.TH. “Theagenio”.

2012 - 2020 member of the Board of HAMP,

2014 -2016 EFOMP chair or European Matters committee

2020 – today member of the Board of PEFNAIDHT

Twice elected member of the Scientific Board of C.H.TH. “Theagenio”

Research interests: RO Dosimetry and Planning, IGRT, SGRT, Stereotactic techniques, Safety in RO